Luxe Entertaining and Everyday Charm from Juliska

Dave Gooding, the charming British founder of Juliska, and Capucine, Dave's muse and Juliska's design director, will be at Ampersand at Galleria on Thursday, April 23. They will be introducing Galleria shoppers and guests to several of the company's newest lines as well as leading seminars on entertaining, smart bridal registries and more.

The Goodings will debut a stunning new Pewter Stoneware collection (the five-piece set pictured above) that uses a ground-breaking metallic glaze that is oven, microwave, dishwasher and freezer safe. Each piece in the collection has an original, hand-thumbed, hammered design.

The Goodings will also detail Juliska's Jardins du Monde collection which features petal shaped dinner and dessert plates, mugs, serving platters, candlesticks and accent pieces. They will unveil Isabella Tulip stemware - a tulip shaped body adorned with Juliska's signature Berry and Thread design. Ampersand shoppers will revel in Juliska's lighting collection which includes hanging glass fixtures and table lamps in the magic design of the company's glassware collection.

Seminars

Capucine will lead three seminars on April 23:

- 11:00 a.m. - Setting a stylish dinner table with new Pewter Stoneware collection.
- 1:00 p.m. - Learn about decorative serving ideas featuring Jardins du Monde.
- 3:00 p.m. - Creating a bridal registry using Berry and Thread dinnerware.

While at Ampersand, Capucine and Dave will offer shoppers and guests insights into the latest home entertaining trends - including clever, inventive ways to infuse your personal style onto your table. The Goodings will also share what they know about creating a beautiful, functional table for chic everyday living.

Capucine and Dave will discuss their experiences and ideas for creating the perfect bridal gift registry. What do brides really need? What are the must-have special occasion pieces? What is the one over-the-top item you must have on the registry?
