EAT, DRINK AND GET MARRIED FIVE GREAT WEDDING GIFT IDEAS

The Wedding Report estimates there will be nearly 21,600 weddings in the Twin Cities metro area this year. Chances are good that you'll be invited to at least one couple's nuptials, so Galleria has assembled some 'Perfect Wedding Gifts' to ensure your gift is much-loved.

1. Boy Meets Grill

Here's a gift for a true Minnesota couple – a bucket grill. This grill-on-the-go is less than a foot square, so it fits in the back of any car, which makes it perfect for tailgating, picnics, camping or simply entertaining a few friends on the patio. Crate and Barrel - $34.95

2. Cold Hand, Warm Blanket

The average annual temperature in the Twin Cities is a chilly 44.9°, making a blanket from Pendleton a timeless gift. Inspired by ancient Native American designs and legends, iconic Pendleton blankets are made from 100% pure virgin wool. Choose from classic stripe, Navajo or National Park blankets. Prices start at $134.

3. Bee Mine

Glassware is always high on a wedding gift list. Choose anything from Mariposa's Tuscan Garden glassware collection - it includes dragonflies or bumblebees on tumblers, highballs, pitchers and more. Ampersand – $12 to $18 per glass.

4. You May Now Kiss the Cook

Williams-Sonoma's wedding box set includes the Bride & Groom Cookbook, a 272-page cookbook with tips for setting up a kitchen and lots of great recipes, and Bride & Groom Entertaining, with how-to's for parties, outdoor entertaining and special occasions. Box set – $69.95. Individual books - $34.95.

5. Bottle Service

The bride and groom don't need to be vinophiles to appreciate the Picnic Wine Bottle Carrier. The hand woven wicker basket holds a bottle of wine, two glasses and a cutting board, knife and bottle opener. Pottery Barn – $69
