A REALISTIC SHOW FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Galleria is proud to welcome back Twin Cities native Jeffrey T. Larson as he displays his internationally-renowned work throughout the holiday season.

Electrolux

Larson has not had a show in Minnesota since 2007 when he last displayed his work at Galleria. While he has shown in over 30 exhibits around the world, this is his fifteenth one-man show in the Twin Cities.

Larson's work focuses on the simplicities of life, yet his work is complex and detailed. If you have never seen a piece by him before, you will be shocked by the realistic depictions in his oil paintings.

Larson has accomplished a great deal in his 25 years of painting. He has recently won both the First Place and Third Place award in the Still Life Category in the Art Renewal Center's International 2008/2009 ARC Salon®. His piece "Reflections" won first and "Electrolux," won third. Galleria guests and shoppers can catch a sneak peek of Larson's Electrolux in the West End Atrium.

Larson was one of over 1,600 artists from more than 30 countries to enter the competition.
